A Pretty Wedding in Augusta
County—The Attendants.
FISHERVILLE, VA., May 27.—(Special.)—A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the Tinkling Spring church, when Miss Bessie Crawford, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David W. Hanger, became the bride of Mr. Philip Barton Porter, the popular cashier of the bank at Louisa Courthouse, Va. Miss Bessie is a type of Virginia's fairest daughters, and a blonde of queenly carriage. The church, artistically trimmed with flowers and evergreens, and lighted with wax candles, presented, with the bride party, a beautiful and respectful picture. The marriage ceremony, in the absence of Dr. Finley, the bride's pastor, was impressively performed by Dr. Cooke, of Waynesboro', Va. The ushers were J. W. McChesney, James Porter, Dr. Page Massey, and Mr. R. Quinlan. The lovely bridesmaids were Misses Jennie McDaniel, Hot Springs, Va.; Belle McDowell, Richmond, Ky.; Madge Crawford, Port Defiance, Va.; and Mattie Porter, Louisa, Va. Miss Mamie Timberlake presided at the organ, and to the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bride party entered the church. Miss Mary E. Hanger, sister of the bride, the maid of honor, a strikingly beautiful brunette, gowned in pink organdie and carrying white carnations, preceded the bride. The groom, entering with his best man, Dr. Porter, met the bride at the altar. The assembly watched with bated breath the approach of the bride, as she came in leaning on the arm of her uncle, Hon. Marshall Hunter, her loveliness being intensified by the splendor of her robes. The costume worn by the bride was satin duchesse, tulle veil, and she carried a bouquet of roses. The solemn vows were spoken that made two hearts beat as one.
After the marriage the bride party left the church to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, repaired to "Old Stone Farm," the home of the bride, where an elegant repast was waiting. The decorations were white and pink, and every

ABLE LAWYER DEAD
JUDGE WM. J. ROBERTSON PASSES AWAY AT CHARLOTTESVILLE.

Sketch of His Career—His Early Life and Education—On the Supreme Court of Appeals Bench—His Family.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 27.—Judge William J. Robertson died at his home, in this city, at 2 o'clock this morning. His death was a surprise to the people generally, for, while it was known that the Judge was in failing health, few had heard that he had grown worse. The funeral will take place at 5 P. M. tomorrow (Saturday) from Christ Episcopal church.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.
William J. Robertson, of Charlottesville, was born in the county of Culpeper in the year 1817. He received a classical and legal education at the University of Virginia, from which institution he graduated with the diploma of Bachelor of Law. He settled in the town of Charlottesville, and began the practice of his profession, in which he was eminently successful. He served as Commonwealth's Attorney for the county of Albemarle, and was connected with some of the most celebrated civil and criminal cases throughout his section of the State, winning great reputation as a profound lawyer and brilliant advocate. In 1859 Judge Robertson was elected to the Supreme Court of Appeals by popular election, over the distinguished John B. Baldwin, of Augusta, to fill the vacancy on the bench occasioned by the death of Judge Green B. Samuels. Judge Robertson served on the Court of Appeals until April 1, 1865, and his opinions delivered during that time, in which he was counsel for the Virginia Bar, never been excelled in profound knowledge of legal principles, clearness of expression, and directness and brevity with which they reached the solution of the issues involved. Judge Robertson was not only a profound lawyer and brilliant advocate, but a man of high character and noble qualities. He was a member of the Virginia Bar, never been excelled in profound knowledge of legal principles, clearness of expression, and directness and brevity with which they reached the solution of the issues involved.

FREDERICKSBURG.
A Probable Camping Ground—The Municipal Election.
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 27.—(Special.)—The second call for volunteers by the President will probably result in this city's being selected as the rendezvous for one of the regiments, as to-day Mayor Gouldman received a letter from Colonel J. S. Pettit, of the United States volunteer forces, asking if suitable camping grounds, with a sufficient supply of water, could be obtained here. The Mayor immediately replied in the affirmative, and requested that an officer be sent to make examinations. Should Colonel Pettit decide to recruit a regiment here, our citizens will extend all aid possible, and endeavor to make camp life for the soldiers as comfortable as possible.

After a spirited and exciting contest, Hon. A. P. Rowe was elected Mayor yesterday over the incumbent, Mr. Henry R. Gouldman, by a majority of 164. Commonwealth's Attorney A. T. Embrey, Commissioner of Revenue A. B. Howering, and City-Sergeant W. Edgington, had no opposition. All the old Council were re-elected, and the vacancy in the upper ward, caused by the candidacy of Councilman Howard for Mayor, was filled by the election of Mr. H. D. Lane.

George Washington and James Harris, who have been on trial in Orange County Court for house-breaking and attempted murder, respectively, were given two years each in the penitentiary. Harris attempted to shoot Officer Watkins, who arrested him, and was sentenced to the penitentiary. The election in Colonial Beach, Westmoreland county, yesterday, resulted in the election of Mr. C. C. Redding for Mayor.

Middlesex Court.
STORMONT, VA., May 27.—(Special.)—This was the day for the trial of the Middlesex County Court. The greater part of yesterday was consumed in the argument in the case of the Commonwealth against A. M. Sadler, Jr., and Ashburn, brother-in-law, were taken up and tried jointly. Quite a number of witnesses were examined, when at 6 o'clock the Judge adjourned court until this morning. Both juries were allowed to go to their homes. Promptly at 10 o'clock to-day the court convened, and the first jury soon came in with the verdict of "not guilty." The cases of the younger Sadler and Ashburn were soon disposed of by the jury finding the former 5c. and acquitting the latter. The court adjourned to-morrow at 10 o'clock, when the case of Bew against Evans will be tried.

Sweeping Democratic Victory.
WINCHESTER, VA., May 27.—(Special.)—At the municipal election, held here yesterday, the Democrats elected every candidate. The vote polled was the largest ever in this city. The election was a sweeping victory for the Democrats, and the amount of scratching prevented the completion of the count until 4 o'clock this morning.

WAKE FOREST.
The Commencement Exercises—The Speeches—Portraits Presented.
WAKE FOREST, N. C., May 27.—(Special.)—Last night closed one of the most enjoyable and successful commencements in the history of Wake Forest College. The entire week has been given to the occasion. On Monday night Judge W. A. Montgomery, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, addressed the law class of 1888, which contained eighty-eight students.
On Tuesday night E. E. Hilliard, of Scotland Neck, N. C., delivered the address before the Alumni Association.
On Wednesday at 11 o'clock President E. B. Andrews, of Brown University, delivered the literary address before the Philomathean and Ezanlian Literary societies.
On Thursday commencement exercises consisted in the speeches of members of the graduating class, presentation of diplomas, &c. The graduating class was divided up as follows: Bachelors of Law, 17; Bachelors of Arts, 32; Masters of Arts, 8. Eight of the class delivered orations, besides the salutatory, which was delivered by T. H. Lacy, and the valedictory by J. C. McNeill, and the address by Dr. James McDaniel, and Dr. A. R. Vann, all of whom were alumni of the institution, except the last named.
In the mass-meeting in the Philomathean Hall Wednesday afternoon the portraits of the late W. W. Vass, of Raleigh; Dr. James McDaniel, and Dr. A. R. Vann, all of whom were alumni of the institution, except the last named.
The addresses during the late commencement were all of a high order. Dr. Smith's sermon was spoken of in highest terms by competent critics. The institution has had quite a successful year, and prospects are bright for its future.

NORTH STATE DEMOCRATS.
Work of the Convention—The Military—New Companies.
RALEIGH, N. C., May 27.—(Special.)—Very few men can be found among the Democrats who do not express the heartiest satisfaction at the work of the State convention last night in rejecting forever any fusion with the Populists.
The convention which did such important work in an eight-hour session was as representative a body of men as ever got together in North Carolina. For it to have done anything, and to have done it, would have been fatal to the party for all time. The tension the night before was great. It seemed sure that the fusion minority, small as it was, would make a fight against the majority, and yesterday afternoon, and evening, and the report against fusion was unanimous. The convention made the best display of esprit de corps since the Democratic party virtually broke up in 1876.
The Adjutant-General is rapidly receiving tenders of companies for the Third Regiment. Wilkes county offers 20 men. Edward E. Britton, of Burlington, left today to raise a company. Major James Williams will raise a company in Cumberland.
The band of the Second Regiment arrived to-day from Scranton, Pa., and was mustered in at Camp Russell. Regiments will be held to-morrow. It is felt that it is important that each regiment should have a good band, but bandmen are hard to obtain.

SALISBURY.
A New Volunteer Company—The Bagley Monument.
SALISBURY, N. C., May 27.—(Special.)—Under the last call for volunteers from the President there will be a company from this city. More than eighty men have been enlisted. Mr. Walter Murphy has been elected captain, and Mr. M. C. Quinn has been elected first lieutenant. The company will be accepted by the Adjutant-General. They will leave for Raleigh to join the new regiment that will be formed there some time during the next week. The full quota will be made up in a day, and then they will be ready for encampment.
A voluntary subscription for funds to build a monument to Ensign Bagley, of Salisbury, is being circulated here and considerable money is being secured.
The Southern railway has erected a large rock crusher at the granite quarries, here, to crush stone for ballasting their road-bed on this section of their line. Many tons will be crushed.

Is Your Brain Tired.
